As part of the Trustee Lecture Series on Leadership and Ethics, Dave Krieg (pictured), three-time Pro Bowl NFL quarterback, will present a lecture on “Values & Ethics—Learned in Sports and Applied to Life” September 14 at 12:00 noon. This presentation is open to the public.

Dave Krieg, a former professional football player for 19 seasons, is one of the most prolific passers in NFL history, ranking among the all-time top 15 in most passing categories. His story starts with a young man who was the 7th string quarterback in a small town in Wisconsin. With luck, hard work and some terrific skills, Dave achieved a successful professional career.

Dave is active in a number of charities across the United States, and travels the country giving motivational presentations. Through his honest, lively, humor-filled and personal stories, he demonstrates leadership skills he’s learned through his extensive NFL experience.

During his time in Eugene, Dave is also serving as the Honorary Host for the 2010 NCU Golf Classic and Dinner at the River, September 12-13.
